

What ideas have you used to save water?
Draw it! Write it! Video it!

- Make a poster showing your ideas and share it with your family and friends.
- Draw a picture and write in your nature journal about which water saver idea you liked doing most.
- Did you help fix a water waster? Take a photo or make a video of your work. Share!

Take your pick or do all these water activities!

Make a rain gauge for monsoon season

<https://www.education.com/science-fair/article/DIY-rain-gauge/>

Play this game and get extra chances by answering water saving questions

<https://www.epa.gov/watersense/watersense-kids#Test%20Your%20WaterSense%20Game>

Try these water experiments

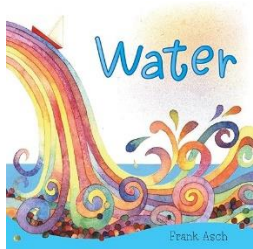

<https://www.education.com/activity/article/understanding-clean-water-make-a-filtration-system/>

https://www.education.com/activity/article/observe\_water\_pollution\_first/

Kid Stuff loves to find books kids might like to read or have read to them. Some of these books are for very young kids, some for older kids and all are about water!

Water by Frank Asch (Author, Illustrator) Preschool – grade 1

An introduction to water for the youngest readers. Water is beautiful and useful and vital to life. In this picture book, Frank Asch encourages young readers to appreciate water.

Why Should I Save Water? By Jen Green (Author), Mike Gordon (Illustrator) Preschool – grade 2

Children will gain a whole new understanding of the world we live in with this fun, first look at our most precious natural resource, water. In this book, kids are told about dozens of ways in which they and their families can avoid wasting water.

You Wouldn't Want to Live Without Clean Water By Roger Canavan (Author), David Antram (Illustrator) Grades 3 – 6

(Part of the “You Wouldn't Want to Live Without...series) How would you cope in a world without water? Clean water is far, far more important than you might think! This book features full-color cartoon-style illustrations and hilarious speech bubbles to heighten interest and is bursting with surprising facts about this essential life source.

National Geographic Kids WATER!: Why every drop counts and how you can start making waves to protect it by Lisa M Gerry (Author) Grades 4 – 12

Did you know the water in your glass could be the same water the dinosaurs drank? Discover more incredible facts about Earth's water, the challenges facing it, and how your actions can help defend this precious resource. Dive in!

Puzzles!

<https://www.jigsawplanet.com/?rc=play&pid=15061ade620b>

<https://www.jigsawplanet.com/?rc=play&pid=02903daf1caf>